Mian Raza Ahmad Khan

Mian Raza Ahmad Khan, a Pakistani politician and former banker is a member of the Pakistan Muslim League (Q). He is a Pakistani banker, politician, and social worker, who has worked for the progress and awareness of their countrymen in the UK. He worked for the welfare of Pakistanis and residents of the UK.

Mian Raza Ahmad Khan, born on July 9, 1974 in Sarai Alamgir, Gujrat, Punjab. While living in Pakistan, he joined the Pakistan Muslim League (Q). After serving 9 years in the party (PML, Q) he moved to the UK and settled in Bolton. His father's name is Mian Mushtaq Ahmad Khan, he is a banker by profession and has worked as a bank manager in different cities. His father also did their work (PML, Q). Early life and family
Mian Ahmad Raza Khan is the son of Mushtaq Ahmad Khan, a former member of the Pakistan Muslim League (Q). His mother's name is Razia Sultana. Mian Ahmed Raza Khan married Sadia Nazneen on August 8, 2003, in Jhelum city of Pakistan. He is the cousin of Raza Ahmad Khan. His son's name is Waris Raza Khan. Now he lives in the UK, in Bolton. Work and education

Mian Ahmad Raza Khan graduated in 1988-1991 from Shaukat Model High School Gujrat. He completed his intermediate in 1993-1995 at Aitchison College Lahore. He earned a master's degree in two different subjects, law and English literature. He went to Central Superior Services (CSS) after completing his LLM from UK University.

After graduation, he started his career as a bank clerk and was later promoted to Bank Manager. Later he decided to start his own business and set up a CNG service station in Gujrat. Gaining more business experience, he started his own clothing business in Gujrat and other cities in Pakistan and continued. He works as an immigration consultant in the UK legal department.
Work

Professional work 2000-2006

Ahmad Raza Khan got his first job in a Muslim commercial bank as a banker. He worked in various departments in Pakistan, Gujrat, Attock, Deona Mandi, and Pind Daden Khan from 2000 to 2006.
2009-2015 first business venture

He decided to start his own business in 2009 which is a CNG Station in Sarai Alamgir, Gujrat with the name Raza CNG Station. This continued until 2015. After gaining experience in his first company, he decided to move on to different companies. 2012 in Business Continuity-Part Two.

Then he started his second business in the clothing industry in 2012. He started his clothing line. (Brand name required) So far it has opened other branches in 3 Lahore, 2 Mirpur AJK, Okara, Islamabad, Abbottabad, Kharian, Gujrat, and Jhelum.

This company has improved his life and career. He made his mark in Pakistan by succeeding in wrestling.
2016 and Gaba - UK legal advice

Finally, when he moved to the UK, he started his career as an immigration consultant in Bolton. Later, he started his third business offering his legal services to Pakistanis abroad. He has also given his services to two British nationals (important names will be mentioned here) who have legal problems in Pakistan and are going to the roof.